Nutter Represents Copley Equity Partners in its Growth Investment in Gregory FCA

01.07.2020 | Press Release

Nutter served as legal counsel to Copley Equity Partners, a Boston-based private investment firm, in its minority growth capital investment in Gregory FCA, one of the nation's 50 largest public relations firms. The Nutter deal team was led by Shannon Zollo, a partner in Nutter's Corporate and Transactions Department and chair of the firm’s Mergers and Acquisitions practice group, and Jonathan Calla, a partner in the Corporate and Transactions Department.

Founded in 1990, Gregory FCA has emerged as a national force in public relations, maintaining a world-class client base focused on financial services, real estate, cybersecurity, enterprise technology, esports, fintech, health care and health care technology, as well as industrials and B2B. Please click for more information on the transaction.

Copley Equity Partners is a private investment firm with offices in Boston and Denver. Copley partners with established lower middle-market businesses with significant growth prospects. The firm makes investments into private companies operating across a broad range of sectors. Copley invests out of an evergreen, single-family office, capital base and is comfortable in both majority and minority ownership positions. Copley’s patient and flexible capital base allows the firm to maintain a limited portfolio of companies and provide each portfolio company with significant support post-investment.

Nutter’s Corporate and Transactions Department represents domestic and international corporations, publicly traded and privately-held companies, private equity firms, nonprofit institutions, and family-owned businesses in a wide variety of domestic and cross-border transactions. The firm’s attorneys advise on significant transactions in every major industry sector, including manufacturing, high technology, life sciences, banking, professional services, real estate, energy, medical devices, and health care. Nutter’s corporate law practice handles the full range of M&A and private equity transactions, including representing buyers and sellers in auctions and bid processes, mergers, asset sales, stock purchases, leveraged buyouts, roll-ups, joint ventures, PIPEs, going private transactions, exchanges of securities, friendly and hostile tender offers, proxy contests, and acquisitions.
About Nutter
Nutter is a Boston-based law firm that provides legal counsel to industry-leading companies, early stage entrepreneurs, institutions, foundations, and families, across the country and around the world. The firm’s business and finance, intellectual property, litigation, real estate and land use, labor and employment, tax, and trusts and estates practices are national in scope. The firm was co-founded in 1879 by former U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis, before his appointment to the Court. For more information, please visit www.nutter.com and follow the firm on LinkedIn.